

SURVEY TO CORPORATE INVITEES

1. Which of the following should be addressed as part of this or a subsequent public/private conference (order your selections starting with number 1 as the category about which you are most interested):

- ____ a. What and how information is shared;
- ____ b. What government is doing to prevent future acts of terrorism;
- ____ c. What resources does the government have to respond to a critical incident;
- ____ d. What can your business do to help prevent future acts of terrorism;
- ____ e. Who would be in charge during a critical incident;
- ____ f. What role would your business have when it is impacted by a critical incident;
- ____ g. What are the various roles of the governmental agencies that investigate and respond to critical incidents;
- ____ h. (Other) _____
_____;
- ____ i. (Other) _____
_____.

2. What do you think government should be doing to better protect businesses in general and businesses like yours in particular? _____

_____.

3. Do you think that your business could be the target of a terrorist attack? _____

If yes, why _____

_____.

4. Would your business be willing to be briefed on what to look for to identify potential terrorist and to report such suspicious incidents to law enforcement? _____

If not, briefly explain why _____

5. Would your business be willing to contribute resources (intelligence, manpower, equipment, materials, etc.) to be used to address a critical incident un-related to your business? _____

If not, briefly explain why _____

If yes, what issues would be of concern to you _____

6. What is the greatest benefit that can be achieved by the public and private sectors working together to address critical incidents? _____

7. We see this conference as a first step. Is your business willing to participate on a long term basis? _____

8. How can government better share information with the private sector? _____

9. What speakers or presentations do you think would be most beneficial to promoting a public/private partnership?

Thank you for taking the time to complete this survey. Please return it with your application. Answers that require additional space should be completed on a separate sheet.